

FOREWORD

Dear Colleagues,

I am glad to introduce you the the 7th volume (No. 1/2021) of the “Învățământ, Cercetare, Creație”, periodical of the Faculty of Arts of the University “Ovidius” from Constanța, Romania, containing the proceedings of the 12th International Symposium Învățământ, Cercetare, Creație (ICC 2021), which was successfully held on June 4-5. Different from the previous four times, ICC 2021 was carried out in the form of virtual conference due to the impact of COVID-19.

Even though the virtual events lack the kind of interpersonal communications attendees get from in-person events, however this has boost the number of participants. A carefully tuned schedule with a virtual platform made it a true “global” event for anyone around the world to attend ICC. The participants, experts and scholars from Romania and abroad, have made the most this new environment of virtual rooms and sessions, resulting very successful event.

It gives me a great pleasure to share with you that we received lots of submissions for the symposium during this special period. Hence, we selected a bunch of high-quality papers and compiled them into the proceedings after rigorously reviewed them. All the papers have been through rigorous review and process to meet the requirements of an International publication standard.

This issue of Proceedings gives the participants a vehicle for disseminating their ideas in a more polished form and will furnish to those interested with an excellent reference title. I trust also that this will be an impetus to stimulate further study and research in all these areas.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the Organizing committee, especilly to the Chairman, Prof. habil. Ioan Ardelean, Ph.D. I would also like to express my thankfulness to all the members of the Scientific Committee, who helped us with their expertise, to the distinguished keynote speakers, as well to all the participants. We also want to thank the editors for publishing the proceedings. May the readers could enjoy the gain some valuable knowledge from it. We are expecting more and more experts and scholars from all over the world to join this international event next year.

I wish you an enjoyable reading!
